The Monthly

Our craft

The creation of quality media

The Monthly is a stunning success and a stand-out achiever as both a print and digital brand. The overarching philosophy of The Monthly comes from Schwartz Media's commitment to uncompromising quality, and is best summarised by four key elements.

Passion

Morry Schwartz, the founder of Schwartz Media, started his first publishing company in 1971 with a simple vision: to publish the best Australian writers in the most beautiful way possible. Now, whether it's a book, a magazine or a newspaper, every publication is still created with the individual care and attention it deserves.

Experience

With more than 40 years of experience curating and editing Australia's most influential writing and journalism, Schwartz Media has a long reputation for excellence. As well as publishing the country's leading current affairs magazine, Schwartz Media publishes the groundbreaking weekend newspaper, The Saturday Paper, and sits proudly alongside an experienced book publisher, Black Inc., and the agenda-setting Quarterly Essay.

Distinction

The Monthly offers comprehensive long-form journalism – content that is sadly neglected elsewhere in the media landscape. With a range of unique voices, The Monthly also maintains a sense of trust and independence that can't be imitated. Its bold design and premium production are merely an extension of this commitment to quality journalism.

Influence

The Monthly has lasting relationships with Australia's most awarded and respected writers – all edited with a rare commitment to excellence. The mix of experienced contributors and fresh talent ensures The Monthly is always the first choice for both writers and readers.

The best writing on Australian politics, society and culture

The Monthly is a proud celebration of print and the written word. The design of the magazine itself is always elegant and tactile.

In an increasingly disposable culture, the things we keep define us. Our readers revisit each issue over and over, taking time to engage with it on a more meaningful level. And when they're finally finished with it, they prefer to hold on to it or to share it with friends and family.

As well as being delivered to subscribers and newsagents right across Australia, The Monthly has a digital offering with the same commitment to quality. While the print magazine and app foster a strong monthly touchpoint with our readers, our website, emails and social media channels foster ongoing daily relationships.

A simple idea

A smarter magazine attracts a premium audience

We believe an intelligent, thoughtful magazine attracts a very particular kind of reader – one who expects both excellence and elegance.

The Monthly is a carefully crafted and curated magazine that attracts readers who, in an increasingly one-dimensional culture, seek a greater level of depth and nuance to their understanding of the world.

With the nation's finest writers covering the very latest in politics, arts and culture, it's no surprise that our readers can be found at the very pinnacle of their fields – from business leaders and senior journalists to CEOs and prime ministers.

Exclusive reach

An audience you won't find anywhere else

Any brand that hopes to influence the premium segment of the market first has to find it. The Monthly attracts a highly engaged and incredibly loyal audience. On average, they've been readers for five years and devote an incredible 89 minutes to every issue.

As well as a loyal and engaged audience, The Monthly provides access to an exclusive and elusive reader: 61 per cent don't read The Sydney Morning Herald, The Age, The Australian or The Australian Financial Review on weekends. And why is that? Simple: 88 per cent of readers say The Monthly has content they can't find anywhere else.

Premium audience

Meet The Monthly's readers

The Monthly's readers are highly educated, affluent and influential. They enjoy high-status careers and command significant purchasing power.

They typically hold top-tier positions in the fields of business, law, social enterprise, government, education, health, media and the arts. They're driven by the need to make a positive impact on the world – and they're paid well to do so.

Our readers lead busy lives of conferences, travel, culture, reading and postgraduate studies. They're in their peak earning years, with a range of investments and a mortgage on an inner-city home. Although they're steady consumers, they prefer high-quality, luxury brands with bespoke, artisan and sustainable qualities.
